RETHLAKE ELECTED TREASURER OF AIC

INDIANAPOLIS – St. Joseph County Clerk Teri Rethlake was elected to the position of Treasurer of the Association of Indiana Counties (AIC) Board of Directors. She will begin her term November 1. Board elections were held during the AIC's Annual Conference in Marion County in September.

"I am extremely honored to be elected as Treasurer of the Association of Indiana Counties," Rethlake said. "I appreciate the current Board's confidence in me to serve as a representative of Indiana's county elected officials. The Association does a wonderful job of helping us express our concerns at the statehouse in regard to legislation and problems we have at the county level. I look forward to helping our membership in any way I can."

The AIC Board of Directors sets policies and legislative goals for the Association. The AIC's Board of Directors met with AIC Legislative Committee members during the AIC's Annual Conference in September and adopted its 2013 legislative platform.

The Association of Indiana Counties, Inc. is a nonprofit organization that was established in 1957 for the betterment of county government. The various functions of the AIC include lobbying the Indiana General Assembly on behalf of counties, serving as liaison among counties, state and federal agencies as well as providing technical assistance and training to county officials and employees.
