PENNY LUKENBILL ELECTED PRESIDENT OF AIC

INDIANAPOLIS – Marshall County Auditor Penny Lukenbill was elected to the position of President of the Association of Indiana Counties (AIC) Board of Directors. Lukenbill will begin her term November 1. Elections were held during the AIC's Annual Conference in Marion County in September.

"It is an honor to be selected to represent the many county officials across Indiana as the AIC President," Lukenbill said. "I look forward to continuing the AIC's tradition of advocating for responsible legislation on local government issues to ensure that we are providing Indiana taxpayers with the government they expect and deserve.

Lukenbill is currently serving in her second term as Auditor. Previously, she served two terms as Marshall County Treasurer, as well as President of the Indiana County Treasurers' Association. She has served on the Legislative Committee and has served as Chair of the Education Committee for the Indiana Auditor's Association. Lukenbill has served on the AIC Board since 2005.

The AIC Board of Directors sets policies and legislative goals for the Association. The AIC's Board of Directors met with AIC Legislative Committee members during the AIC's Annual Conference in September and adopted its 2013 legislative platform.

The Association of Indiana Counties, Inc. is a nonprofit organization that was established in 1957 for the betterment of county government. The various functions of the AIC include lobbying the Indiana General Assembly on behalf of counties, serving as liaison among counties, state and federal agencies as well as providing technical assistance and training to county officials and employees.
