

2016 Directory of Indiana County Officials Advertising Policy/Contract

What is the Directory of Indiana County Officials?

The Directory of Indiana County Officials is the only publication designed exclusively for elected officials of Indiana's 92 counties. It is published in odd numbered years after each general election. It contains the contact information and term expirations of more than 2,000 elected and appointed county officials.. More than 3,000 copies are distributed to county officials, Indiana General Assembly, Indiana Congressional Delegation, Executive Branches, state agencies, news media and members of the business community for use during each two-year time period. Each county official and county associate receives a complimentary copy. You may view a PDF version of this publication if viewing this contract electronically by clicking here.
