KEN PAUST ELECTED FIRST VICE PRESIDENT OF AIC

INDIANAPOLIS – Wayne County Commissioner Ken Paust was elected First Vice President of the Association of Indiana Counties (AIC) Board of Directors. He began his term on November 1, 2019. Board elections were held during the AIC's 61st Annual Conference in Orange County.

Prior to Paust's county government service, he served on the Richmond City Council for 20 years. He has been involved in county government for about 25 years, serving as a county councilman for 15 years. Paust is now in his third term as commissioner. He has been involved with the AIC on the legislative committee and as a board member in previous years. Paust won the Commissioner of the Year Award in both 2012 and 2017.

The AIC Board of Directors sets policies and legislative goals for the Association. The AIC's Board of Directors met with AIC Legislative Committee members during the AIC's Annual Conference recently and adopted its 2020 legislative platform.

The Association of Indiana Counties, Inc. is a nonprofit organization that was established in 1957 for the betterment of county government. The various functions of the AIC include lobbying the Indiana General Assembly on behalf of counties, serving as liaison among counties, state and federal agencies as well as providing technical assistance and training to county officials and employees.
