

District Officer Election Procedures & Qualifications:

District Presidents and Vice Presidents are elected to the AIC Board of Directors and serve until the next district meeting. District Presidents will also serve as a HALO PAC board member. Please note that District Presidents and Vice Presidents must be elected county officials and may not be from the same county.

Nominations for the offices of District President and Vice President shall be submitted in writing. Nominees' names shall be submitted to those present and eligible to vote. Nominations shall be invited from the floor before the vote is cast for any office.

Each elected county official from a member county in the district is eligible to cast one vote for each district office. If there is more than one eligible nominee for an office, the voting shall be by secret ballot. A proxy vote at the meeting is not permitted under AIC bylaws.
